Description

This characterful former schoolmaster's house offers an interesting opportunity for those looking for a property with potential, whether or not in combination with a liberal profession or a special residential use. On the ground floor, there is an entrance hall, a hallway with stairs, a spacious room that can serve as a living room or practice room (former classroom), a kitchen and a separate room with two toilets. There is also a cellar and a pleasant courtyard. The first floor comprises several rooms with a flexible layout (currently three possible rooms), another separate room with two toilets, and an attic floor with the possibility for two separate attic rooms. The heritage character of the building must be taken into account. Renovation obligation from EPC-F to EPC-D within 6 years.
